About Organix-South® monthly herbal seminars. We are committed to supporting our retail partners and customers with sound herbal knowledge and DSHEA (FDA-Dietary Supplement Health and Education Act of 1994) compliant language so that each individual has greater confidence and wisdom when working with herbs. This is supported by our highly qualified team of professionals to promote our organic, fairly traded, and ethically wildcrafted herbal dietary supplements and body care products. Our free monthly herbal seminar trainings offer a broad-spectrum approach that is intended to invite a deeper curiosity into the vast world of herbalism and its depth of empirical use, as well as specific formula information about our TheraVeda® and TheraNeem® lines. Our commitment to education can help to empower each individual to discover which herbs and herbal formulas can support a healthy lifestyle.
